Four years ago, when I was a candidate for the Treasurer's Office, I was approached by the leaders of my party and others with the proposition that if I would withdraw and support F. F. Ninde this should be my time, and they would support me. assuring me that Ninde would not be a candidate in 1890. I agreed and complied with my agree-ment. What do I find now? "Political treachery!" Who is responsible? Ninde has not seen proper to answer my in-quiries of February 2, 1899. Therefore I announce myself a caudidate for the office of county treasurer and cordially invite your support, promising if elected to carry out the requirements of the

TO THE VOTERS OF KING GEORGE

The Several Candidates for Treasurer.

Dr. F. F. Ninde has served as 8 years faithfully. He is so well known that what I can say in his behalf would be of no benefit to him; Mr. Thomas Minor, Jr., is a pleasant gentleman Mr. Wolf is a persevering, industrious, good citizen, I learn; Dr. Caruthers is a genuine, good, kind-hearted man As he is not known all over the county as Dr. Ninde is, I would like to say to the voters of King George a truer, mor honest man I am not acquainted with he will contend for justice in behalf of everybody; the poorest African he will defend; he is a good Samaritan. You know the priest passed by the wounded man and also the Levite, and left the poor wounded man laying on the ground, but the Samaritan took care of him. That is just the man Dr. Caruthers is; will join no rings that will do the tax-payers an injury. If we had had such men to fill county offices I don't think we would have had to pay o much for our jail and a large per cent, to a man to get the money. You know what combinations have brought us to in this country. He is opposed to everything of the kind; he will speak his sentiments before everybody, and may have made himself unpopular by contending for what he believes to with interest: be right; he is an open-hearted man. That is not good for the people. Dr.

This is my candid opinion of Dr. Carathers, and I know him weil. W. E. McClanahan.

Operated on the Wrong Eye

Mr. Thomas Perkins, chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Middlesex county, has returned from Baltimore totally blind. He was blind in one eye and had gone to that city to undergo an operation, in the hopes that the sight of it might be restored. A stringent liquid was injected into the good eye while he was under chloroform and the surgeon went out on other matters. His stay was of long duration and when he returned the patient was hoplessly blind in both eyes. Mr. Perkins is past 70 years of age. -Irvington Oitizen.
